

Mission: Provide AMCOM with innovative and accessible strategic human capital management programs and services for Soldiers, civilians, and family members worldwide. Collaborate with internal and external stakeholders to recruit, develop, sustain, and manage a top-performing workforce.

Vision: Develop and execute strategic human capital management programs to better facilitate and enhance AMCOM's mission, both now and in the future.

AMCOM G-1, Human Capital

AMCOM G-1 supports AMCOM employees, supervisors, deploying contractors, assigned active duty Soldiers and mobilized Army Reservists. In addition, the AMCOM G-1 Headquarters and Headquarters Company (HHC) provides coordinated support for 28 organizations with more than 600 Soldiers located at Redstone Arsenal and the Huntsville, Alabama area.

The AMCOM G-1 Director's Office and Headquarters and Headquarters Company (HHC) provide each Soldier the advantage of a centralized office for military human resources, non-technical training, readiness, in- and out-processing, leaves, passes, permissive TDY, awards, personnel actions, military pay and entitlements. AMCOM G-1 also facilitates the local Army Physical Fitness Test, Army Warrior Training, Army Weight Control Program, Medical Readiness, Army Command Policies, family readiness, as well as deployment oversight and assistance. The HHC Commander is designated as the AMCOM Uniformed Code of Military Justice Authority.
